Description

Two Apples & One Lemon & Four Flowers was published as an insert between pages 10 and 11 in The Independent Tabloid on 7th January 1997, to accompany an interview with Andrew Marr. As stated in the newspaper and on the back of the print itself, it is an original lithograph by the artist, as opposed to a reproduction. The print was previously issued on 5th February 1988 in the Los Angeles Herald Examiner.An article on page 3 of the Independent Tabloid describes how Hockney provided four plates, one for each colour of this lithograph, and that “the print itself only exists once the presses roll”. Hockney is also quoted as saying “even though it’s printed in a mechanical way on a page in a newspaper, it’s constructed only to exist in that way.’
